

CREATIONS & ILLUSTRATIONS BY MANDY SAILE OF BIJOU'S WHIMSY

Hi Everyone,

I hope this newsletter finds you all in good health & great cheer.

I am so excited to announce that my main website has been updated and improved and is now looking better than ever. Do hop on over and have a look around. There are new rotating intro images, new works in the What's New section, new studio shots & fresh biography info. The newsletter and contact pages have been streamlined. But, most importantly are the new sections added. Now you'll see a 'photography' section which showcases all of my favorite photos. There is a new 'out and about' section which houses all of the fantastic mini-sites which we conjure up for special arts events that I've participated in. And, there is now also a new 'This and That' section which will showcase my dolls, felt work and wearables.

There's tons to see on my blog as well, such as new artwork I've been conjuring up, lovely photos from the studio and many bunny shots (of course, ha ha). There's also a new You Tube 'Bunny Diversion' video which will add cheer to any heart, and there are new felt brooches to see, more concert photos and even a secret peek into an enchanted garden.

Don't forget to visit my Etsy shop...Giving the gift of unique handmade items is ideal for the holidays and you'll find nothing but inspiring, colourful and whimsy filled goodies in my shop. My shop has well over 100 images to choose from and new items are being added all the time. My newest illustrations (seen on the left) 'Seraphina & The Night Owl', 'Remembrance', and 'The Dreams Perched' are just a few examples of the imagery being added almost weekly, so do hop by for a browse & a visit.

Until next month, from the studio of Bijou's Whimsy...be well, be joyful and be inspired.

Mandy Saile A.O.C.A.D.
